STATEMENT: The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional. [NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).]WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

PETITION TO REVIVE THE APPLICATION ABANDONED
UNINTENTIONALLY UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(B)

The entire delay was unintentional. In early 2006 the Applicant's father became deathly ill. As distressing as this was the Applicant's mother, who has advanced Alzheimer's disease, was being cared for by her husband, and upon his death the Applicant moved out of his own home into his mothers so that he could care for his mother. These circumstances resulted in the unintentional delay and subsequent abandonment. Applicant, ELBIE D. WALLACE, JR., petitions the USPTO to grant him the revival of his application titled "Method Of Qualifying A Renter", bearing serial number 09/852,867, filed on May 10, 2001.
